This two-tiered play centre with four big castle towers and activity elements is fully suited for developmental play and offers activities for children of various age groups. Stairs with handrails, ladders, climbing walls and platforms lead to the different levels. The lower tier is created for toddlers and contains many elements that help develop their physical and motor skills. Stairs with handrails lead to the lower platform. To move on a balance bridge with moving steps, a net bridge, a sloping bridge or rock climbing wall have to be crossed. The lower path is lined with moving and rotating activity walls, a clock, binoculars and several fine motor skills panels. A small and sturdy slide offers a way down. The playground for bigger children with its several platforms, tunnels and portholes is housed on the higher tier. Innumerable amount of climbing walls, tunnels, slides, balance and fine motor elements connect the play centre and form a massive playground, which offers an abundance of active play and joy. The play centre comes with an attached Tarzan[®] slide zipline and flying through the air makes every kids[®] eyes sparkle with joy.
